MOUNT ST. MARY'S COLLEGE,

Is situated in a romantic and beautiful part of Frederick County, Maryland,—embosomed in woods, and retired from the distractions and moral dangers of a city. The site is peculiarly healthy, and is supplied with the purest water by a spring gushing from the rock. It is distant fifty miles from Baltimore, eighteen from Frederick, Md., twelve from Gettysburg, Pa., and two from Emmitsburg, Md. The buildings are sufficient for the accommodation of two hundred boarders. The various halls and rooms are spacious, airy and comfortable.

This Institution was raised to the rank, and invested with the powers and privileges of a College, by the General Assembly of Maryland, in the month of February, 1830. It is under the direction of an Association of Secular Clergymen of the Roman Catholic Church, and all its pupils are instructed in the doctrines and trained to the practice of the Catholic Religion.

The system of education embraces the various Arts and Sciences usually taught in Colleges, conducted on the most comprehensive plan. A competent knowledge of the Greek and Latin Languages and Literature, of Mathematics, Natural Philosophy and Chemistry, Logic, Moral and Intellectual Philosophy, Geography, Rhetoric, History and English Composition, is, by the statutes of the College, indispensable for graduation. French, Spanish and German, are taught by able and experienced Professors. The College is provided with ample means of imparting the education it professes to give, and of so maintaining its laws and discipline, as to produce general content and happiness, while it commands the respect of the students, and realizes their hopes and those of their parents and guardians.

It has a Library for the use of the Students, an excellent Philosophical Apparatus, a Chemical Laboratory, and a Mineralogical collection.

The Professors and Tutors, about thirty in number, residing, with very few exceptions, in the Institution, devote themselves entirely to the duties of their profession. Constituting but one family with the students, they exercise not only a constant supervision—friendly in the highest degree to discipline and decorum—but also a moral and religious influence of the most salutary kind. The students are never permitted to go beyond the College limits, except in company with one of them. On the other hand ample opportunity is afforded by the retired and rural situation of the College, for the pupils to enjoy, under the care of their teachers, every variety of innocent and healthful recreation, and abundant provision is made for gymnastic and other wholesome exercises. Hence the formation of a robust constitution is in general a result of some years' residence in this Institution. Their diet is always wholesome and abundant. In sickness they are nursed and watched over with parental solicitude, and all the care that parents can desire, is given to the wardrobe, dormitories, and all those departments on which health, comfort and economy depend.

While the government of the College is mild and parental, the laws of good order, propriety and morality, are strictly enforced. The moral influence of instruction, persuasion, and encouragement is primarily and mainly relied on, and is seldom found ineffectual.

The penalty of dismissal or expulsion, is incurred by wanton and repeated violation of the established rules, irreligious language or writings, the introduction of infidel or immoral books, and other grave offences against morality or the laws of the College. Vicious and disorderly students cannot be retained.

Students who come from other Colleges, must produce certificates of good standing and character.

When a student enters the College, he is admitted to those classes, which he is found capable, on examination, of attending with advantage. The most eligible time for entering, is from the 15th to 23d of August; but applicants may be received at any time, and will be charged from the date of entrance.

Frequent examinations of the different classes take place during the academical year. Reports of the students' progress in the several branches of study, are read publicly every Wednesday, in the presence of all their Professors and Tutors, and twice a year a report is sent to the parents or guardians, stating every thing that may interest them concerning their children or wards.

The Commencement is held on the last Wednesday of June, previous to which, the candidates for literary honors are examined publicly; premiums are then distributed to the meritorious, and degrees conferred.

Those who receive the degree of "Bachelor of Arts," are required to write and deliver discourses approved of by the Faculty. To be admitted to this degree, it is necessary that the candidate should have gone through at least the last year of the course in this Institution, and have acquitted himself creditably, so as to give clear evidence of his worthiness, both at the private and public examinations.

Those who have received from the Faculty of this College the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and have, during at least two years thereafter, been engaged in scientific and literary pursuits, will also receive the degree of Master of Arts, on application made to the President and Faculty, accompanied by satisfactory evidence of their moral deportment and continued devotion to liberal studies.

The annual vacation begins on the last Wednesday of June, and continues until the twenty-fourth of August. There being no Christmas or Easter recess, students should not be withdrawn from their classes at either of those periods.

Course of Instruction.

First Year.—LATIN.—Cicero de Senectute and de Amicitiâ and Orations against Cataline, Virgil's Eclogues and Georgics, Prosody, Latin Exercises. GREEK.—Xenophon's Cyropœdia, Homer's Iliad, &c. MATHEMATICS.—Young's Algebra. English Composition, Reading and Declamation. ANCIENT HISTORY and GEOGRAPHY. NATURAL PHILOSOPHY.

Second Year.—LATIN.—Livy, Virgil's Æneid, Exercises in Prose Composition and Versification, Roman Antiquities. GREEK.—Herodotus, Demosthenes, Iliad, Prosody, Greek Antiquities. MATHEMATICS.—Legendre's Plane and Solid Geometry. English Composition and Declamation. HISTORY, from Constantine to Charlemagne. Natural Philosophy and Chemistry.

Third Year—LATIN.—Cicero's Orations, Tacitus, Horace and Juvenal. GREEK.—Thucydides, Longinus, Euripides and Sopocles. Mathematics continued, Mechanics, Astronomy, Rhetoric and Belles-Lettres. History, Mediæval and Modern. Logic, theoretical and practical. Chemistry.

Fourth Year.—Latin and Greek studies continued, Philosophy, Metaphysics, general and special, Ethics, Modern History, Rhetoric and Oratory.

The course of studies pursued by those not yet qualified to enter the Collegiate Department, is as follows:

Preparatory Course.

First Year.—Latin Grammar, Latin Reader, English Grammar, Arithmetic, Reading, Spelling, Writing, Geography, and Elements of History.

Second Year.—LATIN.—Phædrus, Cæsar. GREEK.—Grammar and Reader, English Grammar, Reading, Arithmetic, Writing, Geography, History.

Third Year.—LATIN.—Nepos, Ovid and Sallust, Prosody. Greek Grammar, Xenophon's Anabasis, English Grammar, Arithmetic, Writing, Geography, History.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION IN THE FRENCH, SPANISH AND GERMAN LANGUAGES occupies from two to four hours. The scholars are taught not only to translate, but also to write and speak these languages.

Penmanship, Drawing and Music, Vocal and Instrumental, are always taught in the College.

All who enter the College are required to follow its prescribed course of studies. During the two last years of the Collegiate course, in addition to Classics, Belles-Lettres, Chemistry, and the higher Mathematics, particular attention is given to Logic and Metaphysics, and to the study of Ethics, including the fundamental principles of Civil, Political, and International Law.

For resident graduates and others, who may have time for such studies, there is a course of Civil Engineering, and one of Agricultural Chemistry, Geology, and Paleontology.

Expenses.

Board and Tuition, including the entire classic and scientific course, also Doctor's salary, Washing and Mending, use of Bed and Bedding, $200 per annum—viz: $100 for each half year, always payable in advance.

Music and Drawing are extra charges, each $40 per annum, for those who wish to learn them. The German, French and Spanish Languages, each $20 per annum.

Medicines are furnished at the Apothecary's prices, and generally add but little to the expenses.

Every Student must be supplied, on entering, with four summer suits, if he enter in the spring; and three winter suits, if he enter in the fall. He must also have at least six shirts, six pairs of stockings, six pocket handkerchiefs, six towels, and three pairs of shoes or boots. The Students will be provided with clothing by the Institution, if such should be the wish of their parents.

No uniform is required or worn; but simplicity and economy are recommended to parents, and observed at College.

Bills of expenditure are sent at the close of every half year to the parents, and at the same time is issued a draft at five days' sight. Parents or Guardians residing out of the country, or at too great a distance, must appoint a representative at some convenient place, responsible for the regular payment of the expenses, and bound to receive the student, should it become necessary to dismiss him.

Should a student leave the College before the expiration of a quarter, no deduction is made for the remainder of that quarter, except in cases of sickness or dismissal.

When parents wish their children to spend the vacation at home, they must give previous notice, and forward their travelling expenses.

Those who remain at College during the whole vacation will be charged $25 extra, and for any part of it more than a week, in proportion.

TOTAL NUMBER OF STUDENTS DURING THE YEAR—210.

The Philomathean Society

Consists of active and honorary members; the active members being elected from the senior classes of the Collegiate Department.

It is, mainly, a debating society, and has for its object the improvement of its members in composition and oratory, and the promotion of the study of the historical and other questions which are the usual subjects of debate. In addition to the regular weekly meetings, some of the members are elected every year to deliver public addresses on St. John's Day, Washington's Birthday, and some other National and Academic Festivals.

The regular meetings are presided over by a Critic elected annually from among the Professors of the College: the other officers are chosen monthly from among the active members of the Society.

Active Members.

Charles C. Lee,
Henry E. Casamajor,
Francis Forbes,
Henry Boyce,
Edward Austin,
Charles Dietrich,
Thomas F. Roche,
Joseph C. Shorb,
Francis P. Chatard,
James E. McIntyre,
John Baasen,
B. R. Riordan.

The Mountain Literary Association

Has the same objects, and is conducted in the same manner as the Philomathean Society. The active members are chosen from the Students not sufficiently advanced for the Philomathean Society.

Active Members.

Michael Corrigan,
Andrew J. Quigley,
Beverly Kennedy,
James J. Wale,
Francis L. Thompson,
John H. Edwards,
Thomas McGovern,
John McNeil,
James M. Slevin.

The Students' Library & Reading Room Society

Possesses a Library formed of such works, as may from time to time be approved by the Faculty. Several of the principal journals published in the United States, together with some foreign papers and Magazines are regularly received.

Any Student may become a member, if in the judgment of the President of the College he is likely to derive advantage from so doing. There are at present seventy members. The Library contains about five hundred volumes.

The St. Cecilia Society,

Under the direction of the Professor of Music, is formed from the more advanced members of the Music Classes. Its object is to furnish greater inducements for the cultivation of a taste for, and knowledge of, Music. It celebrates its annual festival by a concert on St. Cecilia's Day, besides assisting at all the other Collegiate Festivals.
